

Rocket Community Fund, Gilbert Family Foundation Two-Year Lookback

In 2021, Dan and Jennifer Gilbert made a 10-year, $500 million joint commitment to building opportunity and equity in Detroit through the Gilbert Family Foundation and the Rocket Community Fund.

Two years later, over $100 million has already been committed to community organizations and efforts to breakdown generational barriers and jumpstart opportunity for Detroit residents.

Here is a breakdown of those commitments:

Rocket Community Fund

Housing
	A	B
1	Creating Homeownership Opportunities	$3.698 million
2	Increasing Access to Home Repair	$1.784 million
3	Preventing Displacement (Tax Foreclosure & Eviction Prevention)	$7.163 million
4	Reducing Barriers to Housing Services	$1.028 million
5	Total	$13.672 million

Employment
	A	B
1	Supporting Efforts to Bridge the Digital Divide	$2.293 million
2	Supporting Detroit Workforce Development Programs	$6.758 million
3	Supporting the Entrepreneurial Ecosystem	$3.08 million
4	Total	$12.131 million

Public Life
	A	B
1	Building Inclusive Downtown Public Spaces	$2.501 million
2	Investing in Community Parks & Open Spaces	$2.269 million
3	Supporting Arts & Culture Programming	$2.376 million
4	Total	$7.146 million

The Rocket Community Fund additionally made $1,607,454 in miscellaneous investments, for a total philanthropic commitment of $34.556 million.

Rocket Community Fund, Gilbert Family Foundation Two-Year Lookback

Gilbert Family Foundation

Housing
	A	B
1	Increasing Access to Home Repair	$10.135 million
2	Preventing Displacement (Tax Foreclosure & Eviction Prevention)	$27 million
3	Reducing Barriers to Housing Services	$10.19 million
4	Total	$47.325 million

Economic Mobility
	A	B
1	Growing Detroit's Workforce	$150,000
2	Supporting the Entrepreneurial Ecosystem	$23.138 million
3	Total	$23.288 million

Public Life
	A	B
1	Building Inclusive Downtown Public Spaces	$1.804 million
2	Investing in Community Parks & Open Spaces	$3.9 million
3	Supporting Arts & Culture Programming	$1.131 million
4	Total	$6.836 million

Overall, the Gilbert Family Foundation has committed $77.448 million.

Alongside the Rocket Community Fund's $34.556 million commitment, these investments yielded a philanthropic commitment of $112.005 million into Detroit organizations and programming.

And we're just getting started.

